Interested in Astronomy?

Our Society welcomes both beginner and advanced alike.

You don't need a telescope to join (telescopes are available for members to hire).

Our members have many skills and interests they would like to share with you.

Activities and Benefits

Some of the activities and benefits members enjoy are :

- Introductory sessions
- Hire of Society telescopes
- Library
- Purchases (eg fleecy jackets, binoculars, caps, beanies)
- Email discussion site
- Society web site : <http://www.mso.anu.edu.au/cas>
- Monthly journal which features news and articles of local, national and international interest
- Telescope making
- "Deep Sky Nights" (observing nights on rural properties away from the glare of city lights)
- Team observations
- Providing viewing nights for the public, schools and organisations including scout/guide groups
- Use of the Society's 14" Meade telescope on Mt Stromlo.
